Set medication reminders once and it should be up to date

Easiest way to keep reminder on Android phone is to use google assistant

Loganathan M

The application should include digital calendar

For instance, let's say you have to take medication in the morning

Devices or Apps to be simple to use

Medicine name ,Strength ,dose should be displayed

It should be implemented in smart watch or other wearable devices

It should also remind to take water, to rest, to walk, etc.

Saran pandi M

Sivakumar S

Reminding of expiry date of particular medicine

'Mood-aware' IoT devices should be implemented

In abnormal health situation smart watch should auto-dial Emergency contact

Reminding of medicine before or after food

It should also contain audio via reminder.(for blind people)

Medicine should have QR codes which should have medicine information

To keep track of their medication regimens or appointments

Customer requirements should full filled

Santhoshkumar K

Yogeshwaran M

It should remind the time to take medicine

Application should alert to refill the medicine

Application should be customizable

It should operated in offline mode also